2. Which events are insured?

Insurance coverage is granted if the insured person suffers an accident or illness (including being diagnosed with an epidemic or a pandemic disease) during the trip that necessitates medical treatment.

3. Which benefits are provided?

Allianz provides benefits in the form of a follow-up insurance to accompany the statutory social insurance system offered in Switzerland (health insurance, accident insurance etc.) or that of the country where the insured person is domiciled or has his main social health insurance coverage, and above any other additional insurances. Coverage is for emergency hospitalization and emergency outpatient treatment costs not fully covered by statutory insurance.

- 3.1 In the event of accident or illness

4. When are benefits limited?

- 4.1 Health and/or accident insurance
If no health and/or accident insurance is in place then Allianz will only refund, up to the amount insured, 50% of that part of the total proven costs for inpatient and outpatient treatment that would normally exceed the compulsory coverage under health and/or accident insurance, provided that those expenses have been incurred as a result of accident or illness. In such cases, no further benefits are payable.
- 4.2 Payment of necessary treatment costs until the return trip
In the event of an accident or illness, Allianz only covers the necessary treatment costs in a private ward up until when, in the sole opinion of the Allianz emergency call centre doctors, the insured person is able to travel back or be repatriated.
- 4.3. No prior consent from Allianz
 - 4.3.1 No coverage exists for payment or refunding of treatment costs in a private ward if the prior consent of the Allianz emergency call centre doctors has not been obtained.
 - 4.3.2 The granting or denial of consent to treatment in a private ward as per Art. II E 3.2 by the Allianz emergency call centre doctors is entirely at their discretion taking into account the local medical conditions in the country visited and after determining the medical necessity or reasonableness of the treatment to be administered. The insured person remains responsible for payment to the practitioner (doctor etc.) for any outpatient treatment locally. A commitment to cover costs must in all cases be requested from the Allianz emergency call centre (conversations with the emergency call centre are recorded). The insured person must, at Allianz's request, submit to an examination by the insurer's doctor at any time.

CAP Legal Protection
Major customer service
Postfach
8010 Zurich
Switzerland
Phone: +41 58 358 09 09
E-mail: capoffice@cap.ch

In emergencies, insured persons may also call the CAP headquarter number, +41 58 358 09 00. All important documents relating to the case must be enclosed with this notification, in particular the monthly statement to prove that the case relates to an insured transaction or an insured vehicle rental. In emergencies, particularly while abroad, the corresponding documentation should be sent as soon as possible. In such a case, any cover granted by CAP shall be subject to subsequent proof of insurance cover by the cardholder.

In the event that the insured fails to comply with his duty to notify, CAP may limit its coverage if the insured fails to prove that he bears no responsibility for the breach of duty or the breach has no effect on the amount of coverage due by CAP.

6. What other rights and duties exist after occurrence of a claim?

- a) CAP and the insured person shall jointly take the measures required to safeguard the insured person's interests. Apart from taking precautions to ensure compliance with deadlines, the insured person may not engage any legal representative, commence any proceedings, arrange any compromise settlements or undertake any legal action without CAP's approval.

- b) If, according to applicable procedural law, the involvement of a legal representative to represent the insured person is necessary during legal or administrative proceedings, or if a conflict of interests arises, particularly if CAP is representing two or more insured persons at the same time whose interests would conflict with each other, the insured person has the right to choose his own legal representative. CAP will also grant this right in the event that an insured person is in dispute with companies within the Allianz Group. If CAP does not accept the proposed legal representative, the insured person has the right to propose three other legal representatives from different law firms, one of which must be accepted by CAP.

Upon notification of the legal protection case, the insured person automatically agrees to release his legal representative from the obligation to maintain professional secrecy with regard to CAP, unless there is a conflict of interests and the requested information could be detrimental to the insured person.

- c) If CAP concludes that safeguarding the legal interests of the insured person has an insufficient prospect of success, it shall write to the legal representative or the insured person providing reasons for its withdrawal. At the same time, CAP shall indicate that the insured person can request a judgment on the matter by an arbitrator, jointly appointed by the insured person and CAP. CAP shall bear the costs of the arbitration proceedings unless the arbitrator decides otherwise because the insured person has wilfully requested an arbitration process.
- d) If the insured person institutes proceedings at his own cost despite the withdrawal of performance due to an insufficient prospect of success, and if the result is better than that stated in writing by CAP, CAP will assume the costs of these proceedings.
- e) The personal data of the insured person will be treated by CAP as strictly confidential. When processing and storing personal data, CAP observes the regulations of the Federal Data Protection Act (DPA) and its ordinance. The data will only be used for the purposes intended (e.g. delivering documents) and will not be disclosed to third parties. 7. Excluded legal matters

- a) Matters that are not mentioned in Art. 2.

- f) Legal protection events due to war, riots, strikes or lock-outs, or in connection with nuclear fission or nuclear fusion.

If the insured person intends to take action against CAP or its employees in connection with their professional activity and against persons who are providing or have provided services in a legal case insured by CAP.

8. Applicable law

Furthermore, the provisions of the Insurance Contract Act (VVG) shall apply. For insured persons with domicile or principal place of business in the Principality of Liechtenstein, the mandatory provisions of Liechtenstein law apply.

In the event of legal disputes, the insured person or the beneficiary may file a suit either at the court at the location of CAP's registered office or at the court at the Swiss location of his own registered office or place of residence. If a cardholder has more than one Card, the insured sums of the Card with the highest insurance benefits apply.
