Extract from the General Terms and Conditions for the Classic and Gold Visa and MasterCard of Cornèr Bank Ltd.

General

On acceptance of the card application, Cornèr Bank Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "Bank") will issue to the applicant (hereinafter referred to as the "Cardholder" or "Principal Cardholder") one or more credit cards (hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Card" or "Card") in his name. The Principal Cardholder may, on his own responsibility, apply for one or more partner cards (hereinafter referred to as the "Partner Card" or "Card") to be issued to a partner or family member. Should the partner or family member be himself creditworthy at the moment of the card issuance, a Partner Card with an independent spending limit and with an own monthly statement may be issued in his name. In such a case, the partner or family member is hereinafter referred to as "Partner Cardholder" or "Cardholder". Otherwise, the partner or family member will receive a Partner Card whose purchases and other transactions are debited directly to the Principal Cardholder. In this case, the partner or family member will be hereinafter referred to as the "Agent".

Use of card, monthly statement and responsibility

The Principal and Partner Cardholder as well as the Agent accept the transaction amounts of any transactions carried out using the Principal or Partner Card (with or without PIN) or the Card details (even without any signature) and irrevocably authorize the Bank to pay the transaction amount to the affiliated merchant or authorized bank. The Bank accepts no responsibility for all transactions entered into using the Card. The Principal and Partner Cardholder will be jointly and severally liable to the Bank (i.e. each of them is liable for their own respective obligations as well as for all obligations of both of them) in respect of the payment of the annual subscription fee and in respect of any and all obligations that may arise through use of the Card and under these General Terms and Conditions. The Principal Cardholder will further be liable in respect of the payment of the annual subscription fee and in respect of any and all obligations that may arise through use of the Agent's Partner Card and under these General Terms and Conditions.

Insurance brokerage and data protection

The Principal and Partner Cardholder as well as the Agent hereby take note that, where contracts of insurance are brokered, the insurer is liable for errors, negligence, or inaccurate information. All information will be treated as confidential. When keeping and processing personal information, the Bank shall comply with the provisions of the data protection legislation. The Bank may commission third parties in Switzerland to process the card application, the credit card contract, and transactions, provided that the Swiss legislation so permits and proper data protection is guaranteed. The personal information made available in the context of the insurance may be passed to the insurers. The Bank and the insurers shall use it only for the purposes of conclusion and administration of the contract of insurance and in the event of a claim. The personal information may be passed to authorized third parties and/or to other group companies of the Bank in the context of settlement of the contract of insurance. This may include data transfer abroad, provided that the third country offers equivalent data protection (recognized as such by applicable data protection legislation). Personal information will be kept in electronic and/or paper form. The Principal and Partner Cardholder as well as the Agent therefore also note that they may assert rights under the data protection legislation to information and, on certain conditions, to the correction, blocking, or deletion of certain data stored at the Bank.

Applicable law and jurisdiction

All legal relations between the Bank and the Principal and/or Partner Cardholder are governed by Swiss law. The place of performance and enforcement for holders of a Principal or Partner Card who reside abroad, and the sole jurisdiction for all proceedings is Lugano, subject to mandatory provisions of Swiss law. The Bank is, however, entitled to take legal action against the holder of the Principal or Partner Card in the court having jurisdiction in his/her place of residence or before any other court of competent jurisdiction.

Credit option

agreement between Cornèr Bank Ltd., Via Canova 16, 6901 Lugano (hereinafter called "Bank") and the cardholder

1. Credit option and interest

The credit option enables the holder of a principal or partner card (hereinafter referred to as the "Cardholder") to pay the amount shown on the relevant monthly statement in installments, for transactions which are effected after expiration of the revocation deadline (see clause 3 below). In such cases, the Bank must receive the minimum amount, corresponding to 5% of the total billed amount, subject to a minimum of CHF 100, by the date stated on the monthly statement. Payment arrears must be settled in addition and without delay. If the Bank is not in possession of the required payment by the stated date, or if the total is less than the prescribed minimum, the Cardholder will be deemed in default in respect of the whole balance, without further warning, with all legal consequences in this regard. On default of the Cardholder, the total balance of any other account statements in the name of the same Cardholder will also immediately fall due for payment. Any excesses of the spending limit shall be settled immediately.

The annual interest rate charged on arrears will be no higher than 15% (Art. 14 of the Federal Consumer Credit Act); the applicable maximum interest rate is set by the Federal Department of Justice and Police (FDJP).

2. Check of creditworthiness, spending limit and overall limit

The spending limit will be set on the basis of the check of creditworthiness and notified to the Cardholder with the copy of the credit card application sent with the credit card. It will be subject to a maximum of 15% (for Classic cards) or 20% (for Gold cards) of the annual income stated in the card application, or fractions thereof. As a rule, the maximum amount will be limited to CHF 10,000 (for Classic cards) or CHF 90,000 (for Gold cards). The check of creditworthiness will be conducted on the basis of the Cardholder information given in the card application. In addition, information (regarding current address, financial standing, any general deputyships) may be obtained from employers, banks, and public bodies (debt enforcement authorities, residents' registration offices, adult protection authorities), credit reference agencies, and, in particular, from the Zentralstelle für Kreditinformation (ZEK) (Central Office for Credit Information) and the Informationsstelle für Konsumkredit (IKO) (Consumer Credit Information Office).

The spending limit set for the holder of a principal card will apply as an overall limit for all his/her principal cards and partner cards issued in favor of the agent. Therefore, the total of all card transactions must not exceed this overall limit. Likewise, the spending limit set for the holder of a partner card will apply to all his/her partner cards. The Bank reserves the right to amend the spending limit at any time, by due written notice to the Cardholder. Spending in excess of the limit set is not permitted. In the event that the limit is exceeded nevertheless, the Cardholder shall repay the excess amount immediately and in full. The Cardholder shall immediately inform the Bank of any worsening of his/her economic circumstances.

3. Revocation and notice of termination

The Cardholder is entitled to give written notice of termination of this credit agreement within seven days of receipt of the requested cards. The Bank is entitled, at any time, to give 30 days' written notice of termination of a credit option. Otherwise, the present credit option will end on expiration of the credit card contract.

4. Miscellaneous

Amendments to the present credit agreement require written form in order to be effective. Otherwise, the current General Terms and Conditions for the Classic and Gold Visa and MasterCard of Cornèr Bank Ltd. apply. These will be sent to the Cardholder with the copy of the card application and the card (and can be viewed at www.cornercard.ch or ordered by telephone on +41 91 800 41 41).
